Eminent Doctors Praise Its Ingredients.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John Fyfe one of the Editorial Staff of THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Helonias Diotca) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a pelvine invigorator * * * makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system." He continues "in Helonias we have a medicament which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root. Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhœa; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women, constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhœa (suppressed or absent monthly periods), arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and anæmic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helonias, and the medical properties of which it most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says:

"It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions * * * and general enfeeblement, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root:

"In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Prof. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal:

"Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhœa (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.

To Sleep with a Wooden Leg.

The Hamilton County Ohio Board of Elections a day or two ago solemnly advised Harry Ernstes, a grocer, to sleep one night with his absent bride's wooden leg in order to gain a residence for election purposes.

Ernstes seems to have lost a home when he gained a wife in Oldenburg, Ind., ten days ago. He is an economical German and in order to save expense it has been his habit to sleep under the counter in the rear of his grocery.

When he returned with his bride October 10, he discovered that he had neglected to provide any home for her and since then he has been sleeping in his old place, while his bride takes turns sleeping at the homes of his relatives.

The Ohio election laws provide that a married man's residence shall be wherever his wife's is.

When Ernstes went to register so he could vote he found that by marrying he had lost his old grocery residence, and since he had not provided his bride with one he had not gained a new one. His wife's migratory spirit prevented her claiming a relative's home as hers.

The difficulty was solved when the board learned that the bride was blessed with a wooden leg, and advised him that he might register and vote if he would take the wooden leg to bed with him in the rear of his grocery store. A law for certain cases will, the board thinks, require him to do this only one night in order to make his old residence hers and thereby his own again.

Mitchell vs Gompers.

Behind the report from Indianapolis that Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, is thinking of abandoning the stump for this campaign there is a story of discord in that body over the political propaganda which he instituted.

John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers, showed at a recent meeting in Washington of the executive council of the federation his distaste for the way Mr. Gompers was running the political campaign. He was induced to support the policy only after he had exacted from Mr. Gompers a pledge that President Roosevelt would not be assailed by labor speakers. Mr. Mitchell insisted that the President had done more positive work for the good of laboring men than anyone else in the United States. Mr. Gompers feels a resentment, which he has not concealed, against President Roosevelt.

Mr. Mitchell's stand, it is assumed, commanded support from James Duncan, vice president of the federation, and one other member of the council. Among close observers of labor-union politics it is believed that if the elections show that the political policy pursued by Mr. Gompers has fallen to pieces he will have a hard time to be re-elected president of the American Federation, which position he has held for many years.

To Europe by Rail.

The great project of reaching the European countries by rail, with a tunnel under Bering Strait, blooms forth in a corporation which filed its charter in the office of the secretary of state in Trenton, N. J., yesterday. It is the Trans-Alaska-Siberian Railway Company, and it is authorized to issue stock to the amount of $6,000,000.

The company also proposes to install a telegraph and telephone system connecting these widely diversified sections of the globe by almost instantaneous methods of communication.

The incorporation of the company is said to be the result of a contract entered into by a special commission appointed by Czar Nicholas II of Russia and a representative of the French, Russian and American syndicates in May, 1906.

The main line is to start from Kansk station, of the Trans-Siberian Railway, and to extend easterly to the boundary of the province of Amour, and thence to a point between Yakoutsk and Okotsk, thence to the Bering Strait, with various branches to other places, and the tunnel under the strait.

The length of the principal line will be about 2,750 miles, and the branch lines 2,250 miles. The Alaska Railway will start from Cape Prince of Wales, Seward Peninsula, Alaska, at a point known as Kinnegan.

Rescue of Sole Survivor of Crew.

New York, Oct. 25.—When the Danish steamer C. F. Tietjen arrived today from Copenhagen, she had on board one more passenger than when she sailed. His name is Hoeck, and is believed to be the sole survivor of the crew of the schooner Oliver S. Barrett, which capsized in a squall on September 14, while bound from Port Royal, S. C., for New York. Hoeck was picked up by the Danish steamer Texas bound from New Orleans for Copenhagen, after he had been adrift for 108 hours. His experience was so terrific that his brain became partially deranged. It is believed, however, that he will recover his reason. The Texas hailed the Tietjen in mid-ocean and transferred the shipwrecked seaman to her.

WINE OF CARDUI

Dead Bride in His Arms.

Leroy McLean, a young electrican, was found in his home, in Harlem, yesterday with the artery on his right wrist severed and bleeding to death and with the body of his bride in his arms. She had died of heart disease, and he, in a frantic effort to summon help, had jammed his arm through the window glass, ripping the flesh to the bone. Policeman Lonergan heard the cries for help and ran up to the McLean apartments. He forced open the door and came upon the young husband, his arm bleeding. On the sofa lay the young wife, her face and hands covered with the blood of her husband, who was bathing her face and begging her to come to life.

"You need treatment, too," said the policeman. "You had better get a doctor. I'll attend to your wife".

The policeman then tore off the strap from his night stick and formed a knot with it about the man's arm.

A physican came from Lebanon Hospital in a short time. One glance at the wife showed him that she was dead.

"She died of heart disease over an hour ago," he said.

Will Not Shorten Sermons.

The Central Church South, the leading Methodist Church in Asheville, N. C., was told by Rev. Gilbert T. Rowe, D. D., its pastor, last Sunday night, that he would not cut down his sermon to thirty minutes' duration, as members had requested. He said he intended to suit himself in the matter, and if his congregation did not like it they could get another preacher.

"I have been uncomfortable in my pulpit ever since I have been here because of the requests from members of my congregation for short sermons," he told a crowded meeting in the church Sunday night. Referring to the fact that the Central Church is the best appointment in the conference, Dr. Rowe said he would prefer to have the poorest, rather than not be allowed to preach as he chose.

Dr. Rowe, who was sent to Central Church last fall, is regarded as one of the brightest and most powerful preachers in the South.

THURSDAY EVENING. OCT. 25, 1906.

NOW IT IS reported that Attorney General Moody is to go upon the Bench of the Supreme Court. Secretary Taft's political ambitions seem to have been aroused, and he will keep off the Bench and take the presidential nomination two years hence. This leaves Secretary Root's future undetermined. Perhaps he feels that as either Hearst or Hughes will be elected Governor of New York next month, there will not be much room for him as a presidential candidate. The intention of appointing Moody to the Supreme Court, says the Philadelphia Record, is again attributed to the purpose of the President to pack the Court with "nationalists" and keep "reactionaries" out. The men he calls "reactionaries" are those who stand by the Constitution of the United States.

PROF. H. L. BOWLBY, now of the University of Washington, has been designated by President Roosevelt to take an examination on December 8 for appointment as second lieutenant in the army. Bowlby was a first year cadet at West Point, and was dismissed, with four others, for participation in a disturbance, beginning with the throwing of a biscuit across the mess hall. His appointment to the army after his dismissal from the academy will not, of course, add to the maintenance of discipline at that institution.

A CLAIM to have discovered a method of transmitting telephonic messages by wireless is made by Waldemar Poulsen, the Danish inventor, who has made a diligent study of wireless telegraphy. Poulsen is the inventor of a wireless system of his own which he claims enables him to send messages without danger of their being "tapped." His new discovery, he asserts will enable him to transmit telephonic messages without the use of wires for the same distance a wireless telegraphic dispatch can be sent.

THE NEW YORK & JERSEY RAILROAD COMPANY yesterday practically completed the work of building a subway from Christopher street and the North river to 9th street and Sixth avenue This work was begun late last year, and it is now possible to walk from a point a few feet east of the Jefferson market police court in New York to Jersey City. The engineers are performing wonders.

IT IS now a year and a half since the ending of the war between Russia and Japan, and yet merchant vessels in East Asian waters are still being destroyed, with appalling loss of life, by the floating mines which were set adrift in that war. There certainly seems to be need of an international compact which shall put an end to such sowing of the high seas with seeds of death.

THE movement to close poolrooms at midnight in Richmond has been followed by one equally as strong to close barrooms also at midnight. Public sentiment in that city it is said is overwhelming, and the ordinance is almost sure to pass. Many of the most responsible saloonkeepers in the city are said to favor the movement.

NOW COMES the statement that nine tenths of the Catholic priests in New York will vote for Hughes, and it is also asserted that a large part of the Jewish vote will be cast for him. If this is so Mr. Hearst might just as well hang his harp on a willow tree.

A SUIT has been filed in Cincinnati against the men who expended a republican campaign fund of $170,000, demanding an accounting. Why, this is easy; it went where it would do the most good.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Oct. 25.

Will Spain eat American cheese? This question is raised by Consul General S. H. Ridegely of Barcelona in a report to the Department of Commerce and Labor. Mr. Ridgely does not attempt to answer the questien except to say that one Spanish firm has discovered that this country's cheese pleases the palates of the Dons, and is already handling the goods advantageously. The principal consumption in Spain consists of the common round Dutch cheese, declares the consul-general, but he suggests that a possible new market is opened under the terms of the new commercial treaty with Spain, by which the lowest scale of Spain's tariff is applied to merchandise of the United States.

The races of the United Hunts Racing Association which begin at Bennings this afternoon will be run over a muddy course, but the ardor of the enthusiasts, including society folk from New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia and Washington is not dampened by the prospect of soft going and additional rain. This is the second meet of the country's swell racing organization and promises to eclipse in attendance and excellence the first which was at Morris Park last year. Interest attaches here in army circles to the grand military steeplechase, for which Perry Belmont is sponsor. Today's card includes six events, among them being the Alexandria steeplechase, about two miles.

Chairman Knapp of the Interstate Commerce Commission, in a letter to William J. Heffernan, secretary of the Massachusetts Press Association, explains why railroads will not be permitted to accept advertising from newspapers, potatoes from farmers and calicoes from dry goods merchants in payment for fares. "You are of course aware that all tariffs filed in compliance with the regulating statute name rates in dollars and cents and do not in any case provide that transportation can be paid for with property," writes the chairman. "A contrary rule would sanction unequal compensation by different persons and involve ordinarily some degree of discrimination in favor of those permitted to exchange their commodities for the transportation they desire to secure.

Upon the nature of the report of Postmaster-General Cortelyou, who is in New York, will depend the decision of the President as to what shall be his course during the remainder of the campaign in that State. Should Mr. Cortelyou find conditions in a bad way for the republicans, Mr. Roosevelt will doubtless write an open letter to candidate Hughes. If republican success seems assured to the President's scout, Mr. Roosevelt will rest on his oars. Mr. Cortelyou was inclined to give out the impression when he left Washington yesterday that he was going to New York in his capacity as Postmaster-General to look after postal matters rather than as national chairman to inspect the political fences. He will be in New York State the remainder of the week, but will associate little in a public way with the republican leaders.

President Roosevelt will probably announce the appointment tomorrow of an Assistant Attorney General to succeed Charles H. Robb who was recently appointed to the District Court of Appeals. Attorney General Moody had a conference with the President this morning and after he left the Executive Office said the appointment would be made within a very short time.

"The English are evidently giving up alcoholic drinks more and more and becoming still greater tea drinkers," says an official buletin of the Department of Commerce and Labor, compiled from consular reports. The decline in beer has been nearly 2,500,000 barrels despite the increase of 2,000,000 in population, while the reports of tea for home consumption in John Bull's domain have been for the first seven months of 1906, 155,767,710 pounds, an increase of more than 10,000,000 for the same period in 1905 The decline in the consumption of spirits has been about twenty-nine per cent. The reports say the practice of private brewing has greatly decreased.

Justice Clabaugh today signed an order delivering to the Alexandria authorities Joseph Wright, accused of the murder of Boni Jackson, near the Long bridge on the night of August 28.

Viscount Aoki, the Japanese Ambassador, has officially called the attention of the State Department to the exclusion of Japanese children from the school of San Francisco and has intimated that his government considers this a violation of the treaty between the United States and Japan, signed in 1894.

The recent anti-Japanese agitation in California, and the consequent anti-American feeling in Japan, were the occasion for a visit which Viscount-Aoki, the Mikado's ambassador, paid to the State Department this morning. The Japanese representative had a long talk with Secretary Root, in which the latter deprecated the manifestations that have been made against his countrymen on the Pacific coast, saying that they were the result of the work of agitators and did not represent the attitude of the American people generally.

Secretary Wilson is planning to start for Iowa tomorrow night for the purpose of talking to the farmers and casting his vote "I've been working around on this meat business," said the secretary, "and haven't been able to pause for four months, so I think I'll take a week off among the home folks. I'd of course go home to vote, anyway," added the secretary as an afterthought.

President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, on his return today from his western tour, issued a statement denying the report that he is a democrat. He also denies that he was forced to stop his speech in Chicago last week.

Navy Yard Men Will Organize.

According to a dispatch from Norfolk the employes of the navy yards of the country are to be organized into a powerful labor body. It ostensibly has for its object the promotion of the interests of the government owned shipyards, as opposed to the private yards. There are those, however, who see in the movement a determination to so thoroughly organize all branches of the trades employed in the yards, and even the clerical force, that it would be possible to dictate wage scales to the Navy Department.

Those behind the movement declare that it is solely intended as an active force to combat the efforts of the private shipyards.

Under this standard they propose to enlist the co-operation of all the business bodies and other organizations of every place within whose borders there is located a navy yard. At the Norfolk navy yard the movement had its birth in the organization by the navy yard machinists of a league.

Bequest to University.

The will of Edward Wilson James, who was found dead in his study in Norfolk, Sunday, after being missing for twelve days, was probated yesterday. The estate is estimated at a quarter of a million dollars. Miss Mary Hooper, of Farmville, is bequeathed $20,000. Rosewell Page, S. P. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Valentine, all of Richmond, are left $1.000 each. Other bequests amount to about $16,000 for friends and relatives.

The will then provides that the remainder of the estate shall go to the University of Virginia, with the provision that for fifteen years to come the university shall turn over one half of the income to the Confederate Soldiers' Home, Richmond. After that the entire residue reverts to the university.

We have received a copy of "Roger of Fairfield," by Miss Virginia Carter Castleman, of Herndon, formerly of this city, and published by the Neale Publishing Co., of New York and Washington. It tells of the young Virginian's decision to be a minister; of his years of preparation at the Theological Seminary; of hours of social intercourse at "Sweet Clarens, birthplace of true love," where he met Lucy Fitzhugh, making a true and pretty picture of youth love and life on The Hill in ante-bellum days. It is a Virginia story, and following Roger's fortunes we see quaint old Alexandria, Mount Vernon, Arlington, Clarens, etc. The book is handsomely bound and well illustrated.

News of the Day.

Mr. W. J. Bryan in an interview yesterday declared for Hearst.

Dr. J. L. Jennings, a Denver physician, was shot about midnight Tuesday night, and is now at the general hospital in a serious condition. Dr. Jennings had been called to a suburb to attend two men who had been fighting. He was shot as he reached the house of one of the combatants. The police are without a clew.

By an explosion in the mine of the Cambria Steel Company at Johnstown, Pa., yesterday, seven men are dead and two painfully but not fatally burned. The explosion is thought to have been caused by the ignition of gas in setting off a blast. The explosion occurred in a heading three miles from the mouth of the mine shaft.

Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje, respondent in the recent sensational divorce suit instituted by her husband, Augustus Hartje, a millionaire paper manufacture of Pittsburg, was the principal witness yesterday for the commonwealth in the perjury case against Clifford Hooe, colored, a former coachman of Hartje. Mrs. Hartje emphatically denied the allegations of intimacy made by Hooe in a deposition. She was subsequently corroborated by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Scott, and a number of former house servants of the family.

Frank W. Mack, for many years a newspaper man, and well known throughout the eastern States, formerly superintendent of the eastern division of the Associated Press, died at Santa Ana, Cal., last night, of consumption.

Thousands of rifles and carbines surrendered by the Cuban insurgents were sunk in thirty fathoms of water off Morro Castle.

Virginia News.

The flagship Commodore Maury, of the State Board of Fisheries, is at Irvington, from the Potomac river. Twenty arrests of dredgers were made and $400 in fines collected. The Maryland and Virginia oysters navies are working in concert.

The Falmouth Railway Company was chartered yesterday by Richmond capitalists. The road is to run from west of Falmouth and will tap the R., F. & P. R. R., near Fredericksburg. W. E. Grant is president; Thos. S. Armistead, treasurer, and A. M. Young, secretary and manager. Capital $2,500 to $20,000. The parties interested in this enterprise have purchased the "Forge" property in Stafford on the Rappahannock, above Falmouth from the Ficklen estate and will open a large granite quarry. The supply of granite is said to be inexhaustable. The road will touch Falmouth and spur the R., F. & P.

Fight Against Moody.

Attorney-General Moody is to be named as associate justice of the U. S. Supreme Court.

It is said that Senators Bailey and Tillman will lead the fight against Moody's confirmation in the Senate on the grounds of alleged unfitness and the fact that his nomination would give Massachusetts two places on the supreme court bench, Justice Holmes having been appointed from that State.

Moody was the emissary of President Roosevelt in negotiations conducted with Tillman and Bailey on the railroad rate bill, which lead to Senate speeches by Tillman denouncing both the President and Moody for entering the combine with democrats and then throwing them down.

Tillman is known to have an unfriendly feeling for Moody. It is hinted that the entire democratic side of the Senate may oppose the nomination for many reasons.

A prominent democrat said yesterday that Moody should not be allowed to go on the bench, as he was almost generally regarded in Washington as a toady to the President and liable to become a tool of the latter on the bench.

Some harsh terms were used in connection with the proposed appointment, the President being accused of trying to stock the supreme court for his own purposes.

Affairs in Cuba.

The statement made by Secretary of War Taft on the eve of his departure from Cuba that he would put all the arms surrendered by the insurgents where they would do no further harm was verified in Havana yesterday when a company of the Cuban artillery spent the afternoon throwing these weapons into the sea from the outer bastion of Morro Castle. Thousands of rifles and carbines were sunk in 30 fathoms of water.

Some unrest continues to prevail in the provinces of Puerto Principe and Santa Clara, where small armed bands are roving and committing minor depredations.

Steps have been taken to restore tranquility.

A sensation has been caused by the disappearance from the cruiser Denver of four silver goblets, forming a part of the service of plate presented to the vessel by the city of Denver. The goblets were evidently stolen at the reception given Monday night on board the war ship. The Denver sailed yesterday morning.

Priests Opposing Socialism.

Opposing the spread of socialism among the foreign-born mine workers of the middle anthracite coal field of Pennsylvania, priests of the Greek, Slavish, and Polish Catholic churches there are approving the formation of an organization to oppose the relection of the Mine Workers' Union officials who are spreading socialistic doctrines among the men.

Father Jadjucek, pastor of the Slavonian church, at Freeland, in explaining why the priests are taken interest in the situation, said:

"We belived the foreigners are being misguided. Vice President Metti, who is the foreign representative in the official makeup of the organization, no longer confines himself to upbuilding unionism, but endeavors to breed contempt for the Christian church, a conception he has found in socialism. His fellow-officers are socialists, and are equally violent in perverting the virtues of this industrial society. I am satisfied the clergy are justified in taken an interest in such a matter."

To Buy Their Own Cotton.

A commission authorized to buy land in the Southern States and raising cotton to be half of the Lancashire spinners [who are interested in the plan to raise their own cotton and thus escape having to rely on middle men for their supply sailed for New York on the Cunard line steamer Caronia Tuesday. The report submitted by the first commission which went to the United States to investigate the possibilities of such a plan being carried out was so favorable that it was decided to send the second commission with much wider powers to buy land and begin experiments.

Confederate Veterans.

The ninth annual reunion of the Grand Camp, United Confederate Veterans, of Virginia, began in Roanoke yesterday in the Academy of Music. Major Joel H. Cutchin delivered the address of welcome and was responded to by Gen. James Baumgardner, of Staunton. Judge Henry T. Parish, of Roanoke, delivered the address of welcome on behalf of the William Watts Camp, of Roanoke, and was responded to by Major James Griffin, of Bedford City. About 700 veterans attended the first day's proceedings.

The report of Commander Fulton urges upon the veterans the necessity of securing and holding the muster rolls of companies, to be used in compiling the roster of Confederate survivors, to be issued by the national government in connection with the roster of Union soldiers.

A special committee appointed at the last session to communicate with General G. W. C. Lee for the purpose of securing a mass of General R. E. Lee's correspondence and publishing it reported through Captain Stratton who stated that General Lee had very promptly turned over to the committee the papers of his father, which had been in the possession of Colonel Charles Marshall, General Robert E Lee's military secretary, since the death of General Lee, until the death of Colonel Marshall, a few years ago The matter of publishing the correspondence was referred to the finance committee of the Grand Camp, and that body will endeavor to take such action as will result in the publication of the papers, which will prove a most valuable addition to the literature of the war.

The Sons of Confederate Veterans held their first meeting last night.

The feature of the session was the address delivered by Colonel R E. Lee, of Fairfax. It was an eloquent effort and wrought up the large attendance to a high pitch of enthusiasm.

The Daughters of the Confederacy, representing the daughters of the soldiers who went to the firing line in 1861, are in Richmond in force, and they receive the attention always showered upon women in Virginia; but it is upon the gray-clad veterans that chief honors are thrust, and the daughters themselves turn the heads of the old fellows with their attentions.

There was a big parade of the old soldiers today. The weather was bad.

The Bankers in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 24.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette.

Not being a voting citizen of St. Louis, I have no hesitation or modesty in expressing my views of the reception and entertainment given to the American Banking Association at its annual convention in this city. One of our papers said: "St. Louis is glad to have been the scene of the Bankers' National Convention. These welcome visitors know the solid thing when they see it. Come again, come every year if possible and grow up with the centre of the wealthiest of nations." This article truly expresses the sentiment of our good people Their hospitality is unexcelled but as the visitor remarked to a number of them, "No thanks to you; you just cant help it, for the old Kentucky, Ohio, Maryland and Virginia blood is in your veins and will manifest itself." The visitor had the pleasure of meeting with many prominent bankers from various sections of the country and all were amazed at the rapid growth of St. Louis, of the large number of immense buildings in progress of erection in the business section; but when in a trolley ride through the residential section in the West End, seeing the beautiful residences, all built from thirty to forty feet from the sidewalks; all terraced from six to ten feet from the level of the streets, with beautiful green lawns and large shade trees, no front fences, they were lost in amazement and were constrained to admit that it was unsurpassed. Mr. C. S. Whitson, of the National City Bank of New York, remarked that at the next census St. Louis will sum up a population of 1,000,000 and I believe it. In conclusion I must not forget to mention that I had several very pleasant interviews with Miss V. F. Church, Cashier of the Bank of Joplin, Mo., the only woman to address the bankers' convention, and she was accorded quite an ovation. She read her address and it was an admirable one. After its conclusion Mr. Walker Hill, chairman of the entertainment committee, escorted her back to the box. A vote of thanks was accorded to her and a beautiful bouquet from the speaker's table was presented to her. We have enjoyed the most charming weather here during the whole month of October.

W. H. L.

[As heretofore stated in the Gazette, Mr. W. F. Lambert, cashier of the Citizens' National Bank of Alexandria, was elected vice president for Virginia at the meeting in St. Louis. This was a compliment not only to Mr. Lambert but to Alexandria.]

TERRIBLE DISASTER.

A Number of Persons Perish in a Fire—Fifty Injured—Thrilling Scenes.

Kansas City, Kas., Oct. 25.—Fire which burned to the ground early today the Chamber of Commerce and a large apartment house adjoining is believed to have caused the death of at least twenty-five persons. It is expected that their bodies will be found in the ruins. In addition fifty persons are reported injured, several of them so seriously that it is feared they will die.

Twenty-five persons are known to have been huddled on the roof or collected on the fourth floor of the apartment house, when the walls suddenly crumbled and the building collapsed like a house of cardboard. The estimate of the dead is based upon this fact, and the list of the missing. Every one left in the building was carried down in the ruins and not one is known to have escaped.

The fire started on the first floor of the Chamber of Commerce building, and spread rapidly in all directions. In the adjoining flat house lived sixty families, embracing over 200 persons. The fire spread to this structure, first catching on the ground floor, thus cutting off escape.

All the occupants of the apartment house were asleep. Many aroused by the cry of fire, and finding their escape to the street blocked by the flames, rushed to the roof. There was a mad scramble to places of supposed safety, Women carrying children in their arms and men loaded down with valuables hastily caught up fought their way to the roof. Soon every available inch of room was occupied. The stairways were crowded and those who could go no higher crowded into the rooms on the fourth floor.

When the firemen arrived the entire building was a blazing mass. Fire ladders were raised, but they did not reach above the third floor. Many persons who dared to venture back to that floor were carried out. Some, crazed by fear jumped from the top floor or the roof to be picked up bleeding and injured. Firemen pushed their way through the burning buildings and brought out several who had fallen unconscious in the smoke-filled halls or had been overcome before getting out of their apartments. Heroic rescues occurred in several cases.

On the fourth floor Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wilson, with their infant child, were cut off from escape. Mrs. Wilson jumped toward the firemen on the ladder, below. The first man broke her fall, and others were able to seize her and she was got down in safety. Wilson, carrying his babe in his arms, followed her in the mad leap. He, too, was saved.

Frank Betar, another occupant of a fourth floor apartment, jumped before the firemen were ready. He caught the rung of a ladder and every finger on both hands was broken. The firemen, however, succeeded in catching him.

While efforts were being made to reach the frightened occupants of the roof, the walls suddenly crumbled. The fire had eaten out the interior of the building and, with a mighty crash, the walls went down. There were frantic shrieks from the crazed men and women on the roof as it sagged beneath them and then sunk into the blazing pile.

A few on the edges of the roof jumped. For the majority, however, there was no escape. Their dying shrieks were drowned in the louder crash of the falling walls and roof.

Search of the ruins will be begun as soon as they cool sufficiently. It is feared many bodies have been utterly consumed so that it may be impossible to even learn the number of killed.

At the hospital where the injured were conveyed, it was said several of the victims could not recover and their death will add to the list of fatalities.

A later dispatch says thirteen persons are still unaccounted for.

Consents to Separation.

London, Oct. 25.—Renouncing the money of his wife, formerly Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, of New York, the Duke of Marlborough has consented to a separation from the Duchess. This is the latest gossip going the rounds in relation to the marital troubles of the well known peer. Terms for the separation of the couple have already been agreed to, according to this report. The Duchess will get Sunderland House and the Duke will waive all right to any portion of the fortune settled on his wife at the time of their marriage. The income from this marriage settlement is to amount to $175,000 annually, All that the Duke will really profit will be to the extent of the repairs made by the Duchess to Blenheim. Neglect of his wife is said to have led to the troubles of the Duke. His conduct has been criticised for a long time, and it is reported that a year ago King Edward talked to Marlborough in behalf of his wife, but without accomplishing any good. The final tiff came when the Duchess refused to accompany her husband on a fishing trip to Scotland.

Slight on Countess.

Munich, Bavaria, Oct. 25.—Another slight has been inflicted upon the Countess Montignoso, formerly Crown Princess Louise, of Saxony, who was separated from her husband in 1903, and this time it is the princess' own children who have added to the sorrows of their mother in punishment for her act in eloping with their tutor.

Arrangement was made for the Countess to meet her sons, Princes George and Frederick, at the Continental Hotel, today. When the Countess saw her sons she rushed toward them and attempted embrace them, but both boys declined to accept her caresses.

While treating her courteously, they were decidedly cool, treating the former Princess as if she were a stranger. This rebuff at the hands of her own children grieved the Countess exceedingly and she cried passionately.

Fleet, at an early hour Wednesday, October 24, after a short illness, Mrs. ANNA LEE KAUS, nee Gaines Funeral from the residence, 321 Queen street, tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 3 o'clock. Reappearance of Young Woman.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 25.—Telling a weird story of being kidnapped, carried of in a carriage, and later confined in a darkened room, from which she escaped wearing a man's coat and shoes, Miss Fannie Sidebotham reappeared at her home last night in as mysterious a way as she vanished from her own bedroom the previous night. The disconnected account of her experiences which she gives has only served to puzzle the authorities more than ever, although they are working upon such material as the young woman has been able to furnish to run down the abductors.

Hysterical and only half conscious, she was found in the early evening sitting on the steps of her own home. She wore a man's coat and man's shoes. It was some time before she could be quieted enough to give any account of herself.

She knew nothing after retiring Tuesday night, she declared, until she awakened to find herself in a carriage with a strange man beside her. She swooned from fright and when she came to, was in a darkened room without any clothing. She heard men talking in an adjoining room and one of them said that no one must know she was there. Aroused by fear, she groped about until she found a portion of her clothing. Wrapping about her a man's coat she found and taking his shoes she leaped from a window and made her way home. There is no disposition on the part of the police to disbelieve her story, and they are now trying to discover the house in which she says she was confined, and run down the kidnappers. Miss Sidebotham's condition is such, however, that she has been able to give little assistance to the officers.

Searching for Robbers.

Greenwich, Conn., Oct. 25.—Two bold robberies in this neighborhood committed in the last few days have aroused the police of the State and they are now engaged in trying to run down what is believed to be an organized gang to which is credited many burglaries recently. Burglars spent two whole days in the summer home of Dr. E H. Brinley, according to word received from there. They ransacked the house at their leisure, slept in the best beds, lived off the doctor's provisions, and used the bath tubs. An alarm clock, set for 4 o'clock, showed the hour at which they had arisen. It will be impossible to tell how much loot they obtained until an inventory can be made. At Bellehaven, a tall, well dressed stranger knocked down and chloroformed a maid in the home of John R. Johnson, of New York, and then went through the house in a search for valuables. So far as known he only got $55.

Strike of Chauffeurs.

New York, Oct. 25.—Police reserves had to be sent to the garage of the New York Transportation Co. at Eighth avenue and 49th street today to preserve order among striking employees of the company.

When John Berry tried to take a vehicle out of the garage, he was dragged from the seat by strikers. It is claimed he drew a revolver and fired into the crowd, but no one was injured. Berry was arrested.

Marine Disaster Feared.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 25.—According to advices received here today from Hatteras, N. C., it is stated that a great maritime disaster, yet unreported, has occurred off the North Carolina coast Four hundred unmarked life preservers have drifted ashore.

Killed Her Husband.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 25.—Mrs. Mary Dower, aged 24, shot and killed her divorced husband, Thomas Dower, last night, at their home in this city. The woman was arrested. She says she shot her husband in self-defense.

Firemen Rescued.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Six firemen were rescued unconscious in a $30,000 incendiary fire at West Pullman early today which destroyed the Sullivan-Palmer carriage factory and the premises of Ansell-Steale Company.

Another Trust.

New York, Oct. 25.—Products of the farm, butter, milk, eggs, cheese and poultry, are to be the object of the latest trust which has just been organized under the name of the American Farm Produce Company. The financial backers of the enterprise are said to be Thomas F. Ryan, Anthony N. Brady, Harry Payne Whitney and Levi P. Morton. Their purpose, it is said, is to corner the market in such products and reap the profits of their sale.

Capitalized at $?,000,000 in preferred stock, the company is said to have $100,000,000 back of it. Common stock to the amount of $15,000 may be issued.

Through the purchase yesterday of James Rowland & Co of this city, the first step toward securing control of the trade in the commodities mentioned in the East, was taken. It is expected that within the next few weeks, many other concerns will be taken over.

The principal office of the trust will be in Chicago and its New York headquarters are located at 52 Broadway. On the board are such men as Sir Frederick Borden, John A Spear, President of the Chicago stock yards; Thomas Sturgis, Continental Company, L. H. Amy, New York banker; Paul D. Charges Official in Sermon.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 25.—Charging that a prominent city official is openly living with a negress and acknowledging the woman as his wife, Rev. Dr. W. J. E. Cox, pastor of the St. Frances Street Baptist Church, delivered a scathing sermon, arraigning Mayor Lyons and the City Council for permitting this state of affairs.

Council, at a special session, appointed a committee to institute an investigation immediately and ascertain whether there is any truth in the statement of the minister. The committee will report today, and if the official is found guilty he will be dismissed without the formality of a hearing.

The Pope Exhausted.

Rome, Oct. 25.—Thoroughly exhausted as the result of holding several interviews today, Pope Pius was forced to take to his bed. The pontiff was so exhausted that he had to be practically carried to his room. His collapse came directly after he had received a number of English pilgrims against the advice of his physicians. Dr. Lapponi, his personal doctor, declares that the indisposition of the Pope is only temporary and believes he will have recovered by tomorrow.

The Battleship Minnesota.

Rockland, Me., Oct. 25.—The battleship Minnesota sailed today for a four hours endurance test, which began near Mohegan shortly after eight o'clock. The wind was blowing a fresh southeast gale and rain was falling. The result of the trial which, to be successful, must be a speed of eighteen knots, maintained for four hours, will be made known when the ship reaches Boston light this afternoon.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 25.—The stock market ruled dull and irregular during the first hour with prices generally showing moderate declines due to closing of contracts in many cases by tired holders. Stop orders were reached in a number of issues that were put in close on the market and they caused declines.

Diver to Risk His Life.

New York, Oct. 25.—At the risk of instant death in a terrible form, David Wilson, a diver, will make an investigation of the East river bottom, today to see if any of the fifty-two charges of dynamite placed there last week to be used in blasting a deeper channel to the new power house of the New York Central Railroad at 149th street, remain unexploded. A tangle in the electric wires arranged to explode the submarine blasts, prevented the explosion of the charges. Only one of the blasts worked properly. Yesterday divers straightened out the tangle and several other charges of dynamite were exploded. Wilson's task will be to see if any remain intact. Wilson realizes this danger as a charge is liable to explode at any moment. The blasts must be removed, however, so that steam shovels can remove the rock loosened by the charges already exploded and Wilson volunteered to undertake the job.

Judgment for Actress.

London, Oct 25.—Judgment for $500 was today awarded May Robson, the actress, from Seare Robey, in her suit alleging breach of a theatrical contract. The money recovered represents a portion of the purchase price for the American rights to the musical comedy "The Lucky Number." Failure to keep his contract was alleged against Mr. Robey in that he did not produce the play in England previous to its production in America.

[COMMUNICATED.

The Police.

I read yesterday evening in the Council proceedings that an Alderman had offered a resolution to increase the police force, and have a chief and two lieutenants. Does he want more men to help the present force do nothing? What the tax payers want is better, not more men.

OBSERVER.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Charles M. Peake, of Braddock Heights, and Juanita E. Mann, of Washington; Samuel B. Bell and Mary E Coxen, both of Washington, and to Forrest W. Gooding and Mabel C. Riseley, both of Washington.

We have received from M. A. Donohue & Co., of Chicago, a copy of "The Dam Family." This is the last work from the pen of Marion Hughes and is claimed to be a timely one in the interest of the people against the trusts. The book is a description of the most notorious people called the "Dam Family," and the writer claims to be a Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson democrat, an Abraham Lincoln republican, a Peter Cooper populist, a Jim Weaver greenbacker, a Bryan democrat, and a Hearst government ownership man and asks that his readers temporarily lay aside all political prejudices and forget while reading his book that they ever belonged to any political party.

Trial of Mathews and Mulhall.

Testimony in the case of Capt. Mathews and Lieut. Mulhall, of the Washington police force, was offered at the hearing before the police trial board of that city yesterday to show that the officers violated police regulations on the night Engineer Hugh S. Murphy, of Alexandria, was scalded so badly by the overturning of his engine that he died.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, which is prosecuting the case against the officers introduced testimony which made it evident that the organization will exhaust every effort in an attempt to show that the officers exceeded their authority. The bulk of the testimony yesterday was given by railway employes who were on the scene soon after the accident happened. All of them agreed that both Captain Mathews and Lieut Mulhall ordered them away when they were endeavoring to raise the engine, in order to release the engineer from his perilous position.

Attorney James S. Esby-Smith, who appeared for the defendants, put all the witnesses through a severe cross-examination. Mr. Charles Bendheim represented the brotherhood.

William Wolf, the principal witness called, testified that he arrived at the scene of the accident five minutes after it occurred. The police, he said, had not then appeared. The witness attempted to raise the engine with a screw jack, but could not get it under the engine. Another was sent for, and when Capt. Mathews arrived, witness told him the engine would have to be raised in order to release Murphy. The captain replied, according to the witness, that nothing could be done until the wrecking engine came. Wolf insisted that he could have released Murphy by raising the cab four inches, and could have done so with the screw jack, but that Capt. Matthews replied that they had no jack sufficient. He declared that the police officer ordered him to leave the engine.

Other witnesses described the scene of the accident, telling how the engineer suffered, and of the efforts employed to raise the engine by means of a screw jack.

Adolph Spence said he reached the wreck two minutes after it occurred. He declared that he was put out of the lines three times by Lieut. Mulhall. He testified that when he was put out he was holding the instruments of the physician who was attending the engineer.

Machinist Cox testified that he reached the wreck one minute after it occurred; that he endeavored to get into the cab to cut off the steam, but that it was so thick he could not do so. He said that he later walked around the front of the engine, thinking he could get in the other way, when Capt. Mathews told the policemen near to put all men out of the lines The testimony of Cox was not concluded yesterday and he will take the stand again this morning at 10 o'clock.

Returned to Washington.

A white women, 19-years-old, reached this city Tuesday night from Washington and proceeded to a house on north Lee street where she applied for board. There being no room in the resort, she went to another house where she procured shelter. Yesterday the proprietress, convinced that the new comer was not of legal age, notified Officer Nicholson and he later escorted the young woman to the station house. Although young in years, she appears to be mature in experience. She said she was born in Tokio, Japan, and is three-quarters Japanese and one quarter English; that she was reared in Salt Lake City; that in Tokio she met a doctor, who, she avers, is a criminal, and who she charges is responsible for her wayward life; that she had lived in New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington; that upon reaching the latter place she ascertained that a detective was following her and she came to Alexandria to avoid him; that she has led a disorderly life for two months, five weeks of which she spent in a hospital. The young woman avers that she has had a sufficiency of the life she has been leading and now desires to procure work and in the future follow the paths of rectitude. She manifests considerable intelligence and seems to have received more than an ordinary school education. The young woman was especially anxious that her name be kept out of the newspapers, as she claims to have respectable connections, some of whom live in Virginia. Justice Caton decided to send her back to Washington.

Enforcing the Vagrant Act.

Lucy Shepherd, Everett Stanton, Pearl Hawkins and Estelle Bouy, young colored women, residents of the "Petersburg" neighborhood, were taken in custody last night by Chief Goods and Officer Nicholson as vagrants. The women have for same time been patrons of the Police Court in one way or another, as well as visitors to saloons and other places where disorders and murder have occurred. When brought before the Police Court this morning the Shepherd woman said she helped her aunt, who took in washing; Everett Stanton attempted to prove that she aided in a similar occupation; Pearl Hawkins said she had packed up her goods and chattels for the purpose of leaving the city, and Estelle Bouy asserted that she had obtained a situation at the Alexandria Hospital. The officers controverted the statements of the women, and the three first-named were sent to jail for 60 days. The Bouy woman was held until it can be proved to the satisfaction of the court that she had been employed at the hospital. Estelle Bouy, it will be remembered, figured as an important witness in the murder of Thomas Elzey by Howard Banks. The above was the only case before the Police Court this morning.

The Assailed Wed.

Miss Mabel C Risley, the eighteen-year old Washington girl who was attacked near Luna Park on the evening of September 9 last by a negro, was married in Washington at 7:30 o'clock last night to Forrest Gooding, the young man who was her escort that evening and upon whom her assailant made an attack with a revolver.

The "Firefighter" at Work.

The steamer "Firefighter," of Washington, with Chief Belt, Master Mechanic Robinson, Fire Marshal Nicholson and others aboard, reached the foot of Cameron street this morning. Chief Engineer Pettey, the Fire Wardens, most of the city officials and many citizens were at the wharf to meet them. The run from Washington to this city was made in 24 minutes, and six minutes later the steamer could have thrown water had a fire been raging on the river front.

The work of laying hose was commenced soon after the boat had been made fast to the wharf and three lines (about 3,000 feet) were extended up Cameron street to Fairfax. Subsequently a stream of water 1 inch thick was thrown 126 feet on Cameron street.

The hose were later extended up Cameron to Royal street where a similar stream was thrown 128 feet.

Three streams were later blended in one (2¾ inches thick) and water was hurled 88 feet.

A pipe throwing an inch and a half stream was subsequently adjusted to the hose when water was thrown to the height of the City Hall steeple and a distance of 189 feet south on Royal street.

Other equally as satisfactory tests were made, after which the four-inch monitor pipes of the "Firefighter" were tested.

The performance of the "Firefighter" were highly satisfactory, and showed that should a disastrous conflagration break out on the river front or three squares west streams from the boat would soon check it.

The exhibition attracted many spectators.

The "Firefighter" can throw 14 streams.

At the close of the tests the Washingtonians were entertained at Chief Pettey's restaurant, on Royal street. The Washingtonians were greatly pleased with their visit, and the Alexandrians were equally pleased with their guests.

The "Firefighter" later returned to Washington, Chief Pettey making the trip on her.

Arrest of a Conductor.

Charged with being responsible for the condition of Mary Ellen Coxen, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fillmore Coxen, of 1013 G street, southeast, Washington, Samuel B. Bell, 28 years old, a conductor on the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway, living in this city, was arrested in Washington, Tuesday.

The girl was removed last Friday to a Washington hospital. A consultation of doctors at the hospital with the family physician, was held Tuesday night.

Miss Coxen told her parents that Bell had taken her to Columbia Heights early last spring.

The warrant for Bell's arrest was sworn out by the girl's mother, Mrs. Julia Coxen. Learning that he was wanted by the police, Bell on Tuesday night went to his mother's home, in southeast Washington, where the police say he confessed the whole affair.

Knowing that he would probably go to his mother's home, Detective Howlett waited outside the house until Bell came out, when he placed him under arrest.

Yesterday a marriage license was procured and Bell and Miss Coxen were married at the hospital. This action will nol pros. the case. The doctors say the young wife will soon be well.

The Machinists' Strike.

No men have so far taken the places recently vacated by the machinists of the Southern Railway in this city. It is said that a number of men who had come from Pittsburg to work in the shops refused to go to work after reaching this city. Twelve of the number left the train in Washington and announced their determination not to proceed to Alexandria. Nine came here, but they afterwards declined the places offered them.

The railway company is now engaged in fixing up quarters for men at the machine shops in this city. Sleeping apartments and dining rooms are being arranged. They will be utilized when machinists shall have been procured.

The striking machinists were paid off by the union this morning.

Two of the special officers employed at the new union depot resigned their positions today. The men were from Harrisonburg.

The report is again current that the Southern Railway shops are to be removed from this city to Monroe, near Lynchburg. Some of the machinery in in the shops here, it is said, has already been removed to Monroe.

Wedding.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized last evening at the home of the bride on New York avenue, Washington, D. C., when Miss Juanita E. Mann became the bride of Mr. Charles M Peake, of Braddock Heights, The house was beautifully decorated with chrysantheums and autumn leaves and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Hubbard, of Washington. The bride was becomingly gowned in white silk made princess and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Her travelling suit was light gray with gloves and hat to match. Her attendant was her sister, Mrs. W. P. Ferguson, as matron of honor. The groom's best man was his brother, Mr. Joseph T. Peake, of Braddock Heights. The bride and groom entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin march played by Mrs. Shreve Wilson, cousin of the bride. After a reception the young couple left on a late train for Philadelphia and New York and upon their return will make their future home in Washington.

United Hunts Association.

Members of hunt clubs and steeplechase associations from all over the country are in Washington for the annual race meeting of the United Hunts Association, which began at the Benning racetrack today. There will be three days' racing, with four steeplechases and two flat races each day, to be run today, Saturday of this week, and Monday of next week. That Virginians will take a prominent part in the events is evident from the Virginia horses that appeared in the list of entries today. The second race today was the Alexandria steeplechase; about two miles.

If an article is imitated, the original is always best. Think it over, and when you It to buy that box of salve to keep around the house, get DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. go is the original and the name is stamped on every box. Wright in Jail.

The matter of the requisition from Governor Swanson for the return to the Alexandria county authorities of Joseph Thomas, colored, alias John Wright, wanted for the murder of Jackson Boney, also colored, on the night of August 23, near the Virginia end of the new Highway bridge came up before Judge Clabaugh in the Washington Criminal Court today. Wright is also indicted by the Alexandria county grand jury for an alleged criminal assault on Annie Greer, colored, who was the companion of Boney at the time of the alleged killing. Indictments have also been returned charging Wright with a felonious assault on Miss Mabel Risley, near Luna Park, September 9, and an assault to kill Forrest Gooding, her companion, at the time. Two colored lawyers counsel for Thomas objected to his removal when the hearing on the requisition came up, but Judge Clabaugh, ruled against them and turned the prisoner over to the county authorities. He was at once brought to the county and lodged in jail.

Approval Withheld.

The Mayor has withheld his approval of the bill passed by the City Council last Tuesday night appropriating $500 as a reward for the capture of the murderer of Mr. C. T. Smith on the ground that such an appropriation was contrary to the State law, which provides that a sum not greater than $100 can be offered by any City Council as a reward for the arrest of a criminal. The Mayor has requested the presidents of the two boards of Council to call a meeting of their respective boards and the request, it is said, will be complied with and Council will probably meet tomorrow night to take action concerning the matter.

Mrs. Stuart at Winchester.

The members and friends of Christ Episcopal Church will have an opportunity this week of listening to a highly interesting address on missons in Alaska and the far west dy Miss Sallie Stuart, of Alexandria, who is secretary of the Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary. Miss Stuart has just returned from an extended trip to Alaska and the Pacific coast, and having had a great deal of experience in the work she is in a position to present the facts in an interesting manner. Miss Stuart's address will be delivered in the chapel of Christ Church on Friday evening.—[Winchester News.

Circuit Court for the County.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

Arthur G. William, a colored, vs. W., A. & F. C. R. Co., a suit for $1,000 for damages for being forcibly ejected from a car; case in progress.

The next case to be called is that of Howard Smith vs. the W., A. & F. C. R. Co., a suit for $20,000 for damages for alleged personal injuries.

Argument will be heard tomorrow on the petition of James M. Pettit for a license to conduct a saloon near Brick Haven, in Jefferson district.

An Itinerant Preacher.

When a large crowd had gathered at the intersection of Cameron and Royal streets shortly before noon today to witness the testing of the steamer "Firefighter's" powers in throwing streams of water, an itinerant preacher appeared and after hoisting an umbrella upon which scriptural quotations had been painted began to warn the crowd against a fire upon which water will prove impotent. A stream from the hose pipe started to deluge the square which brought the harangue to an abrupt termination.

Appeal Taken.

As was stated yesterday, Bessie Keys, a well-known colored woman of the Second ward, was arrested Tuesday night charged with abusive language and for being in company with a darkey who had threatened to kill another colored man. The woman upon being questioned by Justice Caton yesterday morning proved to be a vagrant under the law, and was sent to jail for 60 days. She later took an appeal from the justice's decision to the Corporation Court. The woman is represented by Messrs. Machen and Moncure.

Murderer Still at Large.

Nothing definite is known of the whereabouts of the negro Johnson, or Midgets, who shot and killed Charles T Smith in this city last Saturday night. A report was circulated in this city last night to the effect that Robinson, the negro who was with the murderer Saturday night, had been in the neighborhood of Quantico, but the report has not been confirmed.

New Paving.

The cobblestones which are being removed from Fairfax street, between King and Cameron, are being deposited at the foot of Prince street, where they will be used in paving between Union street and the river. The part of the street to be improved up to a few years ago was covered with water and formed one of the city docks.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

At the meeting last night of the Knights of Columbus new by-laws were adopted.

There will be a meeting and parade in Zion Baptist Church, on Lee street, between Franklin and Jefferson, tomorrow night.

On account of the continued inclement weather the golf tea which had been arranged for tomorrow has been postponed to November 2, when Miss Kemper and Miss Agnew will serve tea at the golf house.

District of Columbia Division, U. D. C., will hold a memorial service next Sunday evening at 3:30 o'clock for Mrs. Jefferson Davis at Confederate Veterans' Hall, No. 1410 H street northwest, Washington, and Lee Camp and the other Southern socities in this city have been invited to attend.

The strictness with which the National Hunt and Steeplechase Association hedges around the licenses for gentlemen jockeys is shown by the fact that for the present racing season there have been but sixty-four licenses granted to riders as gentleman jockeys. Among the members are Mr. C. B. Hooff, jr., and Courtland H. Smith, of Fairfax county.

Having waited for nearly two weeks for "the clouds to roll by," the people of this city and vicinity hailed the sun with delight when that orb made its appearance this morning.

Mr. Elisha Butler, railroad flagman at Cameron and Henry streets, became ill yesterday and had to be taken to his home. His place is being supplied by Mr. Robt. Jasper.

Contributions amounting to nearly $200 have so far been made to the fund for the aid of the family of Mr. C. T. Smith, who was murder in this city last Saturday night.

Tickling Human Vanity.

Few people realize how profitable the trade of tickling human vanity is and how many different forms it employs. There are obscure newspapers and nominal magazines that live by it and provide good incomes for their editors. It is quite common to find upon center tables luxuriously bound and printed volumes whose contents consist entirely of fulsome puffs. Each profession, trade, avocation and association has its library of memorabilia of persons of the kind who, in Lowell's phrase, were created to fill up the world. The writer remembers seeing in the "best room" of a remote farmhouse a morocco bound, gild edged volume upon the notabilities of the country, which contained a biography and engraved portrait of rusticus horribilis himself. The original volunteered the information that his niche in the local pantheon had cost him a sum, which, on later conversation, was disclosed to be larger than a year's interest on the mortgage encumbering the farm.—Wilbur Larremore in Atlantic.

The Dramatic Flavor of Wall Street.

It is the speculative side of Wall street that most appeals to the imagination. If we were dealing with that side of Wall street we should not lack for authenticated cases of high dramatic flavor, as, for example, that of a youth of eighteen who ran $2 into a fortune of $200,000 in a few months and was last heard of trying to pawn his wife's engagement ring for $25; or that of the farmer who made several millions of dollars from a very modest beginning, slipped a check for $800,000 under the breakfast plate of each member of his family one morning, tore the checks up because within an hour the riches had become a matter of domestic strife and was last heard of when one day he brought a load of hay across the ferry from Staten Island to New York and begged his brokers to take it in lieu of margins for one more "trade."—Success Magazine.

A Tree of Many Powers.

The ash tree is rich with superstition. The old charlatans of the middle ages used it in their love potions, and the damsels of ancient times believed that it would enable them to make their sweethearts true and help them to discover their future husbands. The inhabitants of Iceland still look with dread upon the use of mountain ash as fuel. Their belief that it will make enemies of all who gather round a hearthstone on which it burns is deep seated and was once almost universal in Europe.

Superstitious seekers after good luck may still be found invoking the spirit of the even leaved ash, after the manner of the ancient tree worshipers, with the verses:

Even ash, I do pluck thee,
Hoping thus to meet good luck;
If no luck I get from thee
I shall wish thee on a tree.

Purity of Bread.

It cannot be too often repeated that of all food that comes to table there is nothing so pure as bread.—London Bakers' Times.

He who lives after nature shall never be poor; after opinion shall never be rich.—Seneca.

Looking Backward.

Do you ever look back over your ears and think how many times you have made a fool of yourself? We do.—Mancos Times-Tribune.

True and tried friends of the family—De Witt's Little Early Risers. Best for results and best to take. Dependable little pill. They do not gripe or sicken. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Human Blood Marks.

A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bac, Ky., He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures Hemmorhages, Chronic Coughs, Settled Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for Weak Lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Drop by drop the offensive discharge caused by Nasal Catarrh falls from the back of the nose into the throat, setting up an inflammation that is likely to mean Chronic Bronchitis. The certain, rational cure for Catarrh is Ely's Cream Balm, and the relief that follows even the first application cannot be told in words. Don't suffer a day longer from the discomfort of Nasal Catarrh. Cream Balm is sold by all druggists for 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

JEWELRY.

Going Housekeeping?

If so, you can hardly get along without spoons, knives and forks. The silver-plated are without a doubt the most economical in the end. They wear longer, look better and cost very little more than the ordinary kinds. We can even supply silver-plated knives with steel blades.

Your sideboard is hardly complete without a silver set. Silver cake and fruit baskets should also be placed there.

A candelabra with will brighten the table considerably. After the spread has been cleared off a silver fern dish should be placed on the table.

The necessary things in cut-glass are the decanter, the berry bowl and the celery dish. In a great many homes the ice cream is served on cut glass plates.

On your dresser place a traveling alarm clock and a sterling silver or silver-plated toilet set, also a hat and clothes brush.

You will find plenty use of a number of small silver-plated trays. One has always so many trinkets to take care of.

There should be a jewel case on the dresser, if only for appearance sake. Over night it is a good place to keep the watch and Z—K Gold Chain.
